

Dear Office-Logic Administrator,

To help maintain the quality of our products and services to our customers, LAN-ACES, Inc. is now offering an annual Updates, Support, and Enhancement (USE) Agreement to our existing Office-Logic clients.

The LAN-ACES Updates, Support, and Enhancement Agreement contains the following:

★ Free Technical Support from LAN-ACES:

Free Technical Support will be available for clients that have a current USE Agreement. Any new add-on licenses that are purchased will automatically be covered under the current USE Agreement, free of charge, for the remainder of that agreement. Support will be available through phone, e-mail, and our web site.

★ Free updates to products:

Free upgrades for all maintenance and version updates as they become available. A valid e-mail address or fax number will be required for update notifications.

★ Free Automatic Virus Definition Updates in Office-Logic InterChange:

Office-Logic InterChange will automatically check for new virus definitions every three hours, and update your system when needed.

★ Cost Effective:

The Office-Logic USE Agreement ensures that our clients will always have access to the latest product updates and technical support, while effectively cutting costs.

If you have any questions about features or pricing, please contact our Sales Department or visit our website at <http://www.LAN-ACES.com>

LAN-ACES, Inc. offers a wide range of products to help improve office communications.
